CHRIST CHURCH WILL BUILD NEW EDIFICE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., December E.—The congregation of the old Christ Church has voted by a large majority to build a new house of worship in Ghent, forsaking its present church building on Freemason and Cumberland Streets. The vote on the question of the removal stood 28s for, set against.

It is probable that the congregation will build on the site now occupied by St. Stephen's Chapel, at the corner of Olney Road and Stockley Gardens, which you are getting the definite and tangible result of the systematic and thorough methods that are revolutionizing the entire cigar-producing industry.

In making such claims as this we realize that we have to stake our whole business on the smoking quality of the cigars we make. We know these cigars must "make good" or else we must back out of the competition.
